Keep Going

OPENING

Dear Reader,

This batch of letters was created to help you see the end from the beginning. There is a kind of kingdom cheat code that lets us start at the finish line. We already know how the story plays out. No matter what life throws at us, there is only one ending — Victory.

So, keep going. It's not time to give up. We don't quit in this kingdom.

It is all working together for good

Hello friend,

The first chapter of the Hope eBook focused on Romans 8:28, which says:

“All things work together for good to those who love God.”

Take a deep breath and relax. Everything is working together for your good. Don't let the way things look right now trouble you. Instead, focus on the sure Word of God. Be confident that He is working it all out for good.

It is that simple.

Stay strong,
Damilare

Keep Your Eyes on the Goal

Hello friend,

Hebrews 12:1 (NKJV), paraphrased, says:

“Let us lay aside every weight, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us.”

It's easy to get distracted by the world around us or discouraged when things don't go as expected.

But we can't let those things stop us. We need to keep moving toward the goal.

The Word here is simple: keep your eye on the goal.

Don't let anything hold you back from becoming all the Lord has called you to be.

Stay strong,
Damilare

Beauty From Ashes

Hello friend,

One of my favourite things about God is that He is a Restorer. He makes everything better. He can bring beauty out of anything.

Isaiah 61:3 reminds us that He gives “beauty for ashes” and “joy for mourning.”

What are the ashes in your life today?

Will you hand them over to God and watch how much beauty He can create from them?

Stay strong,

God's Got You!

Hello friend,

In Isaiah 43:2, God promises that He will be with you in every situation. I've noticed that this was God's response many times in Scripture whenever people felt afraid — from Moses (Exodus 3:12) to Joshua (Joshua 1:5), to Gideon (Judges 6:16), and many others.

Whatever you're facing right now, remember this: you are not alone. You're not walking through life by yourself. You're walking hand in hand with the Almighty God.

Be encouraged and stand firm. One with God is more than enough. He will see you through.

Stay strong,
Damilare

You Can Do It!

Hello friend,

"I can do all things through him who strengthens me." Philippians 4:13 ESV

Don't limit yourself. God has already strengthened you for everything He's called you to do. He's giving you the capacity and grace to handle all that's in your care.

Look beyond how you feel, take bold steps, and trust His leading. Ask God to guide you and then go for it!

With Love,
Damilare
